In case of any compensation or liability incurred by the Show Management, the exhibitor shall indemnify the Show Management for all losses arising therefrom.
- Dangerous Articles. All materials used for building, decorating or covering stands must be of non-flammable material. In no circumstances shall any Exhibitor have or permit on his Stand naked lights or oil lamps, explosives, detonating or fulminating compounds, or articles or materials of a dangerous, inflammable or objectionable nature. Only articles described at the time of application may be displayed on stands and any articles and materials not approved by the Show Management must be removed from the building.
- Noise Control. The use of video equipment, loudspeaker systems, tape recorders, film projectors or slide projectors is permitted, provided the noise level is sufficiently low to avoid disturbance to visitors and other Exhibitors. The Show Management reserve the right to exercise their judgment in respect of an acceptable level of noise. The use of musical instrument(s) is expressly prohibited. Demonstration of noisy machinery must be kept to a minimum in order to avoid annoyance to visitors and other Exhibitors.
- If Exhibitor's exhibits are irrelevant to the Exhibition Profile stated in its contract, the Show Management shall be entitled to terminate its license to occupy its stand and hold exhibitor's liable for breach of the contract. Exhibitor will be responsible for all the losses arising therefrom. Paid fee is not refundable.
- Improper Behavior. Any behavior of the exhibitor or its representatives or employees in the exhibition hall which Show Management consider to be objectionable or disturbing, or which may discredit the exhibition, the person shall be immediately expelled from the exhibition hall and shall not be allowed to enter the exhibition hall for the rest of the exhibition period. The Show Management may immediately terminate the use of the booth by the exhibitor without prejudice to the Show Management's exercise of other rights over the exhibitor. The Show Management have the rights to retain the fees paid by the exhibitor and require it to pay the unpaid amount.
- Electricity, Water, etc. General lighting in the Exhibition Hall is supplied and an official contractor has been appointed and a schedule of prices will be submitted to each Exhibitor for ordering of extra electricity, water, compressed air, etc. which Exhibitors may require within their stands. No Exhibitor shall connect to or interfere with the electricity, water, compressed air or other fitting in the Hall without the prior consent of the Show Management and Venue Owners. The Owners and Show Management or their Contractors shall have the right to enter any stand to install, examine, test, repair or renew any electric fittings or to remove any defective apparatus.
- Copyright. Should any Exhibitor or individual intend to bring into the Hall, audio and visual equipment or other electronic equipment for the purpose of reproducing or receiving sounds, visual images or words, it is their personal responsibility to ensure, at their own expense, that they have obtained all the relevant licenses and consents, in connection with the laws of copyright or infringement of the rights of those who have legal protection against unauthorized public performance or broadcast of their recordings. The Show Management accept no responsibility in this respect or liability which may arise from their failure to do so. No stand or articles at the Exhibition may be photographed, drawn, copied or reproduced in any way without written permission of the Show Management. The Exhibition name, word mark(s), logo(s) and associated graphic devices are the protected property of the Show Management and cannot be reproduced in any form, for any purpose, without Show Management' written permission.
Printing & Advertisement. The Show Management reserve the sole rights of compiling and issuing any catalogue or list of Exhibitors and Exhibits. The Show Management reserve the sole rights of printing and issuing invitations and tickets of admission, and only such invitations and tickets will be valid for the Exhibition. Advertising on site and on printed materials such as show catalogue, ticket and carrying package is only possible through the channels offered by the Show Management.
- All exhibits must have independent intellectual property rights or valid certificates of authorization. The Show Management have the right to reject any product that infringes upon the intellectual property rights of others. If there is clear evidence or the product is deemed as infringing by the relevant government administrative department, the Show Management have the right to unilaterally terminate the contract and expel the exhibitor from the exhibition hall.
- Amendment of Plan. In exceptional circumstances, the Show Management reserve the right to change the dates, location, hall layout or the position allotted to any Exhibitor if required by the Venue Owner, Local Authorities or for any other reason, and no liability in regard thereto shall rest on the Show Management and such a change shall not at any time permit the Exhibitor to repudiate the Contract. Should any error arise in the allotment of space to any Exhibitor no liability in regard thereto shall rest on the Show Management. In such case the Show Management will endeavor without prejudice to offer a substituted arrangement but they do not bind themselves to do so.
- Limitation of Liability. The Show Management shall not be responsible for the safety of the exhibits or property of any exhibitor, its employees or agents, or other persons; Not liable for loss or damage caused by theft or other causes; Due to force majeure, such as fire, flood, earthquake, storm and other natural disasters; Government actions or disasters such as large-scale epidemic diseases and travel restrictions announced by relevant national departments; and other circumstances beyond the control of organizational units (such as power failure), which force organizational units to temporarily or for a long time to empty one or more exhibition venues, or delay or shorten or change the time of the exhibition. In this case, the Show Management shall not bear the direct or indirect losses of the exhibitors, nor refund all or part of the money paid by the exhibitors. The exhibitor shall not have the right to withdraw or cancel the contract, nor shall it have any right to lodge a claim against the Show Management. If the Show Management cancel the exhibition due to force majeure or other situation that beyond control, or because for holding the exhibition has become unreasonable, the Show Management shall not be liable for any damage or adverse effect caused by the cancellation of the exhibition.
- Change of Conditions. The Show Management reserve the right to alter, add to, amend or waive these Terms and Conditions, or any of them in any particular case, or cases, as they shall consider appropriate. No alteration, addition, amendment or waiver to or of these conditions shall operate to release any Exhibitor from his obligations set out herein.
- Law of Contract. This contract shall be deemed to be governed by the Law of the People's Republic of China. In any disputes that may arise concerning the execution or interpretation of the present Terms and Conditions, both parties declare that they agree to submit to Shanghai International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission for arbitration in accordance with its currently effective arbitration rules. The arbitration award shall be final and binding upon all parties.
